	Show Stats Restart Achievements
	You creep forward, watching for any movement, and conscious of making any sounds to alert the man. As you get closer, you see that the figure is wearing black pants and a black shirt and a hat turned backwards with the cafe's logo across it. He is focused on the woman and nothing else, including you, in the room. His body shifts on the table and uncovers the woman, who has a large red area across her chest and midsection. Turning his head, you spot a string of substance from the woman to the man's mouth and realize in immediate horror that the man is feasting on the woman. The man tears at the woman's flesh, with long pieces of organs covered in blood being fed into his mouth. The woman's head is caved in beyond recognition, and the thought that this could be Emma sickens you.
	The zombie drops off the table into a chair and slips out a portion of intestine. You hold your hand over your mouth as dry heaves start, but you stifle them back. You consider leaving the cafe but notice a cell phone sitting on the edge of the table where the zombie is having his meal.  The only exit noticeable is through a set of double doors on the opposite side of the room.
	<ul> <li>Leave immediately and try another area of the 3rd Floor.</li> </ul>
	Sneak over and take the cellphone.
	○ Kill the zombie.
	Oraw the zombie away from the table and take the cellphone.

ORIGINAL - I bought this little game on sales, and was satisfied. It is flawed (uneventful, uneven gameplay, poetry not so present), but also endearing thanks to its calm, soothing dimension. Some levels are indeed immersive, others are a little disappointing. The journals entries were what made me find the game nice, as they gave the key to the larger story. There are also 20 Steam achievements, which you can actually achieve, a bonus considering that for some games it's unfeasable if you're not a hardcore gamer.

So, for a small price, you can get an unusual little game which is not perfect but rewarding in the end.

. TL:DR

If you are Looking For a Exciting Solid Action Old-School Platformer That Have Lava Constantly Flowing, This One's Worth the 2.5usd for a solid fun of at least 3 hours.

Levels:

The Levels are mostly different and unique from each other while including some chanllenging levels and some levels with with element of puzzling, you go up down left right colect gems jump around fire pass through invisble walls dodging flying birds and spikes and Flying Fires while getting away from the rising lava.

Music:

There Is only 2 music track that are both great and suited for the game But for a game this short(~4 hours for 100%) i guess is ok. Sound effects are your original jump sounds and landing sounds, nothing special.

Bugs:

The Game Crashed a few times and the music suddenly stopped until i restarted the game except those i havnt seen any problems else.

PS:Beware That Your Hat Counts As Hitbox

Incase the tralier with evil spikes havnt make you buy this game,here's a gameplay videos:(Lv 1~28) http:\/\/youtu.be\/IygeoYL3tSM. in only 9 minutes of gameplay.... i have never seen such trash in my life. after playing this game i realized that everything else that happend after this game was bad. i went to the barbershop after playing this and my barber \(\formidv\) ed up my hairline so bad that now you can do the pythagorean theorem on my hairline. All the females that i had on my phone started leaving me and telling all their friends that i'm a trash\(\formidv\) \(\formidv\) so now i won't get no \(\formidv\) a school no more. i bit into my food and my food bit me back and gave me food poisoning. I went to go to the store real quick in my car and my car's engine stopped working and my car got towed. this game has ruined my life, and everything that surrounded me, this game needs to collect all of it's copies and send them on a straight route to the sun so they all burn and don't exist anymore and we also need federal hackers to remove all pictures and evidence of this game existing so our kids don't have to get hurt by it. please save yourself and save your money, don't buy this game, please.. Chip's Challenge is a tale of the indomitable spirit that burns in the hearts of men. The long road stretches before all of us, obscured by great oceans, blazing wildfires, frozen wastelands, and one-way directional floor tiles. Our dreams are hidden behind closed doors, and only the most courageous among us seek out the appropriately-colored keys. Chip is one such courageous individual. He will not rest until his demons are conquered and the challenges set before him lie as blazing piles of ash in his wake.

He endures the pain and the sorrow, he fights through tears and blood, and he hits reset for the one-hundredth time after pushing a block into the wrong water tile. He does this for love, for the hand of Melinda the Mental Marvel, but he also does this for himself. In conquering the insects, the rocket ships, and the chattering teeth, in walking across the fires, sacrificing the technological relics, and traversing the transdimensional portals, he ascends beyond his own mortal shortcomings and into the realm of gods. His chains unfettered, he is unstoppable. He is the hunter, and block puzzles are his prey.

This is not merely a game. This is a rite of passage into your own potential. This is the mountain that stands in your way, the path you must build with your own two hands. This is your Andre the Giant. This is your King George III. This is your Apollo Creed. When the chips are down and it's your call, are you all talk or do you have something to show? Does the blood of the warriors pulse in your veins? Are you one star shining in the night sky brighter than all the other stars?

Just who the hell do you think you are?. Honestly thought this would be just a 'meh' gimmick game, but it's WAY MORE then I expected!

Build and manage flying machines, multiple defence lines, create your own unique turrets... and so much more!

It actually really feels like an RTS too because you have to manage\/ move around towers around, and grab new pieces from fallen enemies, and quickly figure out the best ways to defend against different enemies.

DEFINITELY give this a try!. Pros: Addicting, very fun, cute graphics, different game modes

Cons: no graphical settings, sound effects are off when game is started up, no split screen, no controller support, no real story for me the pros overweigh the cons. personally i wouldnt pay 10$ for it, maybe 2 or 3. i got this game for free though. :D im very happy about it. If this game were to be remade or stuff added to it, im sure it will be a best seller!! It has so much potencial!!

I rate this game 9.5/10. I recomend Heroes V with both hands, one of the best heroes games of all time:). Definately in BETA, but you knew that if you have early access.

The graphics are good, and on par with current genre games.

The music gets old, and needs some additional tracks.

Gameplay is fun.

Content - needs much more. The small map leaves alot to be desired. The resource generation is tiny, I've only found out how to gather fish and walrus Ivory. The ivory is OP as a resource, sells for a ton and you can easily exploit harbors near walrus resources to quickly max out cash.

The game needs to have a the ability to create your own harbor\/island. The seemingly randomness of blueprints needs to be clarified. I have collected what seems like all of them, as im just getting dupliates now. But there is no way to know for sure. And I can only seem to randomly be able to apply the blueprints, i guess its dependant on which ship you have? That information would be great to know.

The random "skeleton" or "Tower" dont seem to do anything. It would be cool to capture these things and have them do something?

The questing UI is horrible, and completely not worth your time. The EXPVGold per quest is insignificant with the walrus farming, and ship battles, you can kill 5-7 ships in the time it takes to complete a mission, and atleast as far as my 2 ship fleet is concerned, killing other ships is 5-7x more exp generation. No known benefit for completing the missions.

There needs to be a way to understand when other skills unlock. Im not sure if these areas are just not yet developed, or its a mystery. Overall tooltips need to be created to give the player an understanding of all the concepts of the game.

Fun to kill 1hr. With more content added will be worth the $10. Seem this is not bad hope more improve soon Took less than 15 minutes to get 100% achievements, will idle the rest for the cards. Worth it if you like achievements, especially with the sale.. Very atmospheric and suspenseful game, very well made!. Didn't expect to like this, but booy this is an amazing game to play. The story, the stats, items, all it's getting along awesome. I love this game so far and I recomend it.. Great music and animation. This game just feels good to play. This game is so much fun. Especially in the first few hours with some friends on TeamSpeak or Discord or whatever. Seriously, try it out!. would be great if the multiplayer actually worked.
